SUPERVISOR LIPSCOMB TO HOST LISTENING SESSION OCTOBER 28TH

Residents invited to ask questions and learn about issues facing Milwaukee County

Milwaukee, WI – First District Milwaukee County Supervisor Theodore Lipscomb, who represents parts of Glendale and Milwaukee's north side, will host a listening session on October 28th to discuss a variety of topics, including the 2009 County Budget, the status of the former St. Michael's hospital site, and the future of the Estabrook Park Dam.

Supervisor Lipscomb will also be available to discuss the upcoming advisory referendum that will appear on the ballot November 4th, which asks voters whether they support a plan to provide property tax relief by shifting funding for mass transit, parks, recreation, culture and paramedics from the property tax levy to a small increase in the sales tax.

Tuesday, October 28, 2008

6:00 P.M. – 7:30 P.M.

Villard Library

3310 W. Villard Avenue, Milwaukee

"I look forward to hearing from my neighbors on the many important issues facing Milwaukee County," Supervisor Lipscomb said. "I am dedicated to sharing more information and acting on behalf of my constituents."
